The cultural competency training program is designed to prepare faculty & staff with the knowledge and skills to create a warm, welcoming and affirming environment for LGBTQI communities on campus.

Participants gain a more in-depth understanding of LGBTQI identity, the impact of homophobia and transphobia on college campus and guidance regarding the creation and maintenance of affirming spaces on campus for LGBTQI communities.

Training Outcomes:

- Learn about sexuality & gender socialization
- Learn about unfamiliar terms and concepts that you might not know about
- Foster ally development and help to create a safe environment for all students.
- Grasp and retain an overview of current issues

Benefits of Attending:

- Learn the necessary skills to become an ally
- Have an opportunity to ask questions about sexual orientation
