Are you a first-time college student?

Counseling 105 is designed for first-time college students to develop an individual education plan. Students will be oriented to Rio Hondo College policies and procedures, learn about certificate/degree options within the higher education system, and the graduation/transfer requirements within these systems. The course will culminate in the development of an individual education plan based on each student’s specific academic goal.

*Summer Bridge Program participants will be registering for a designated Counseling 105 class. Further instructions will be provided during the Summer Bridge program.

Get Started!
