PERSPECTIVES OF SEX AND GENDER

3 Units/Advisory: READ 023 or appropriate assessment, ENGL 035 or ESL 198 or appropriate assessment.

In this course we will explore how gender shapes our lives and the world around us. Using a sociological perspective, we will examine gender as a social construction rather than a simple biological difference. Topics to be covered will include, but not encompass, cultural ideas of gender, gender and the economy, politics, the media, families, and education. This course is designed for men and women who want to learn more about the social connections of gender and how the importance of gender differences are strengthened in our society today.
