

Capital Letters

Use capital letters for
The first word in each sentence.

Names, nicknames, titles	Dr. Thomas (Tommy) Turner
Races, nations, languages, religions	H iroko is an A sian from J apan who speaks J apanese and practices B uddhism.
Days, months, holidays, but not seasons	I'm leaving for the w inter. I'll be back T uesday, A pril 1, A pril F ools D ay.
First word of titles	The Marathon Man
Important words in titles (but not a, an, the, but, or, for, nor, or prepositions of, it, by with that are 4 letters or less.	E verything Y ou A lways W anted to K now A bout S ex b ut W ere A fraid to A sk organizations, buildings, ships, cars	The Oakland Raiders play in the Oakland Coliseum . Take the cruise ship Mariposa and I'll pick you up in my Honda .
Regions, but not directions	Arizona is e ast of California. Arizona is not in the E ast.
Known names of the Deity	God , Jehovah , Allah , Mohammed , Buddha , Jesus , Christ
But not abstract use	He believes in a god .
Names of places	Decanter , Illinois
Courses in school, but not general studies	Take Dryland Skiing to meet your physical education requirements.

General studies in languages are capitalized because you always capitalize languages: Sign up for a French course.