Credit in the Reading Lab is based on two criteria:

First, you must complete a total of 27 hours of assigned lab activities demonstrating effort and progress.

Second, you must complete three (3) conferences. Conferences must be received during the scheduled conference days.

On June 24th: you will complete your Reading Lab Orientation and MRL registration. Open lab begins today.

June 30: Drop deadline w/o a “W”

July 17: Drop deadline with a “W”

July 7th: Online folders are due. No Exceptions!

At this time, your work and hours completed will be checked and recorded.

July 30th is the last day for lab. You should have 27 hours completed. Your folders will be checked at this time and recorded. A Lab report of your total hours will be given to your classroom instructor.
