Catalog Course Description:

"This course provides the student with an introduction to the French language and culture. The course stresses oral and written proficiency as well as reading comprehension. In addition to classroom discussion, students receive intensive individualized oral-aural practice in the language laboratory via interactive French websites, audio CDs, video programs, and CD ROMs. Various facets of French history, philosophy, and politics will also be analyzed via cross-cultural comparisons. This course is intended for those interested in learning to speak French as well as for those seeking a degree in the French language."

Student Learning Outcomes:

Students will demonstrate productive (speech and writing) and receptive (reading and listening) skills in the target language using the present tense. Students will be able to perform tasks that are meaningful, personalized, and culturally relevant or appropriate in the target language.

By logging into Canvas you affirm that you are the student who enrolled in the course(s) and are the person who will complete the assigned work.
