This course is designed to provide Corrections or other interested students with an awareness of the historical framework, concepts, and precedents that guide correctional practice. Course material will broaden the individual's perspective of the corrections environment, civil rights of prisoners, and responsibilities and liabilities of corrections officials. This course has been identified by the Correctional Peace Officer Standards and Training Board of the California Department of Corrections, California Youth Authority, and California Correctional Peace Officers Association to fulfill educational requirements of the CPOST Certificate for newly hired officers after July 1, 1995 by CDC and CYA.
Units: 3
Lecture Hours: 54

Student Learning Outcomes:
• Discuss the U.S. Supreme Court's decisions on correctional issues and inmates' rights.
• Apply legal definitions, concepts, and principles to law enforcement, courts, or correctional settings.
• Communicate information in a clear and organized manner.
• Apply constitutional, statutory, procedural, and case law to real-life criminal justice situations.

By logging into Canvas you affirm that you are the student who enrolled in the course(s) and are the person who will complete the assigned work.
