

Student Learning Outcome

CD 208 Child, Family and Community

State Student Learning Outcome:

Given the information present in a video related to family identify what a family is.

Proposed Types of Assessment to be used:

Evaluate the inclusion of the diversity of family through in-class or take-home assignments.

Collection and Evaluation Process: Results will be collected from all sections of the course and compiled by faculty to be reviewed during department meeting during Flex Day each semester.

Performance standard	Excellent	Satisfactory	Unsatisfactory
Relevant to the assigned topic	Identify the different components of family related to children, culture and types of families.	Define the differences in families.	Unable to articulate the components of families.
Applies to the guidelines/criteria	Compare and contrast different families.	List the types of families.	Give the definition of families.
Responds to the questions posed	Articulate and express the comparison and contrasts of families.	Identifies the components of types of families.	Unable to articulate or express the components of families.