Rio Hondo’s Vet Center has partnered up with the Financial Coaching Initiative to provide Financial Coaching on site at no cost.

Who is eligible for this service?
- Veterans
- Inactive National Guardsmen and Reservists
- Immediate family members

Financial coaches provide support, encouragement, accountability, and tools to help make informed decisions. A financial coach is a trained professional who will guide you in a process that is non-judgmental and based on your goals.

- One-on-one: Your coach will work with you to help you identify your financial goals, create a plan, and track your progress
- Personalized: The coaching relationship starts with you. Your financial coach will meet you wherever you are on your financial journey.
- No cost to you: The financial coaching services are offered at no cost to you and with no strings attached.

We do not sell products or give specific investment advice.

Financial coaching is provided through an initiative of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB), a federal agency. This program is managed through a contract with the Armed Forces Services Corporation (AFSC).
