Catalog Course Description:
This course is designed to provide California Peace Officers or other interested students with instruction into the correctional process of supervision of inmates who have been convicted of sex offenses. Topics include human sexuality and dysfunctions, theories of sexual offense, offender typologies and supervision techniques. The curriculum follows that recommended by the California Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training and the California Corrections Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training.

Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Compare and contrast the five sex offender typologies.
2. Apply legal definitions, concepts, and principles to law enforcement, courts, or correctional settings.
3. Communicate information in a clear and organized manner.
4. Apply constitutional, statutory, procedural, and case law to real-life criminal justice situations.

By logging into Blackboard you affirm that you are the student who enrolled in the course(s) and are the person who will complete the assigned work. Furthermore, you agree to follow the regulations regarding academic integrity, personal identification and the use of student information as described in BP 5500 (Standards of Conduct) and AP 5520 (Student Conduct Procedures) which are the Rio Hondo College student conduct codes that govern student rights and responsibilities. You acknowledge that failure to abide by the regulations set forth in BP 5500 and AP 5520 may result in disciplinary action, including expulsion from the college.

This is NOT a self-paced course. There are firm deadlines in this class. There are assignments due on a regular basis. Please plan your time carefully!
