New Business:

Areas of Interest:

Discussion of suggested titles for areas of interest as well as how this process is being approached; importance of student involvement in this process was voiced; discussion surrounding the appropriate number of areas of interest; ASRHC has proposed a list of areas of interest: health sciences, arts, public safety, trade skills, communication and languages, behavioral and social science, physical education and kinesiology, STEM, business & economics; suggestion was made that areas of interest be used as the first layer of discovery and then subsequent steps provide more detailed information

Motion made by Brian Brutlag to adopt the list of areas of interest as proposed by the ASRHC

Seconded by Michelle Beane

Discussion: this list will be vetted by a student focus group and will be an iterative process

Motion passed unanimously

Register as a Student at Rio Hondo College Taskforce:

Volunteers were solicited for going through the steps of registering through CCC Apply: Sergio, Brian, Angelica, and Michelle volunteered; will report back to the group at next meeting on their findings

Mapping of GE's:

Discussion regarding what it means to map GE's (areas vs. specific recommended courses); does the committee want to recommend that this work be done?

Motion made by Michelle Bean for each committee member to return to their divisions to begin discussing mapping of GE's

Seconded by Libby Curiel

Motion made by Jim Newman to table the above motion to next meeting

Seconded by Grant Linsell
