KIN 136 Pilates Mat Teaching: Foundations
Description
This course includes foundational information necessary for students interested in teaching Pilates Mat classes. The course will focus on establishing a personal practice in combination with an experiential analysis of the physical fitness system created by Joseph Pilates. The course will also introduce the student to the history and philosophy of Pilates Mat, as well as the methodologies and business of teaching Pilates Mat. This course is designed for students pursuing the proposed Pilates Mat Teacher Training Certificate, a career teaching Pilates Mat in the fitness industry, or for those interested in furthering their understanding of the effects and benefits of Pilates for health, fitness, rehabilitation, and overall physical performance and endurance.
- Item 2122-392
New Credit Course
KINA 236 Pilates Mat 2
Description

KINA 236 is a continuation of KINA 136, and builds upon the basic Pilates Mat exercises covered in KINA 136. The exercises in this course are designed to further increase strength in the abdominal and spinal musculature. Students engage in exercises and learn how to utilize props (e.g., magic circles, stretch/exercise bands, mini balls, gliders, and hand weights) designed to further increase awareness of body alignment, torso strength, and spine and limbs as well as to increase endurance while fine-tuning breathing techniques utilized in strength training exercises. Additionally, students advance their coordination and balance, and learn about the muscle groups and their actions being utilized during traditional Pilates Mat work. This course is suitable for students interested in conditioning, dance, athletics, and fitness, or those seeking to increase overall strength to better support the spine in everyday activities. The course is required for the Mat Pilates Teacher Training Certificate.
