New Credit Course
DANC 142 Dance Improvisation I
Description:
This dance studio course explores the theory and practice of dance improvisation in solo and group form. Utilizing techniques of improvisation across cultural traditions in dance, students experiment with sensory stimuli, modes of self-expression, composing in the moment, music visualization and contact improvisation for performance. The course explores the practical use of improvisation in expressing imagery, developing choreographic concepts, and enhancing performance. Although the course supports dance majors and those seeking careers in dance and choreography, students of all abilities and backgrounds are welcome. No formal dance experience required.

New Credit Course
ASL 299 Directed Study: American Sign Language

Description

Independent Study/Directed Study is intended for students who have the ability to assume responsibility for independent work and to prepare written or oral reports and/or appropriate projects. To enroll in an Independent Study/Directed Study course, students must possess a 2.5 overall grade point average, a 3.0 grade point average in the discipline of study being requested, or receive an exception from the instructor. Independent Studies/Directed Studies may be developed from any topic arising from or related to a course of study that will result in developing depth and breadth in that subject area. Students will be expected to meet on a regular basis with their faculty sponsor and submit a final report or project, and student progress shall be evaluated at regular intervals. Academic standards for Independent Studies/Directed Studies shall be the same as those for other courses. Units are awarded in accordance to title 5 regulations with one unit of credit awarded for 54 hours of Directed Studies, six (6) hours of which must be with an instructor. The instructor is responsible for monitoring student progress through the semester. Students may take directed study courses for a maximum of three (3) units within a discipline, and may not accumulate more than a total of nine (9) units college wide.

Item 2223-129

New Credit Course
DANC 257 Hip Hop Dance II

Description

Students will learn various forms of intermediate hip-hop dance, including pop and lock, hip-hop funk, syncopations, and rhythms. The class will explore the use of space, energy, rhythm, and improvisation while emphasizing body control, alignment, balance, and use of weight changes. A history of hip-hop culture will be discussed. The course appeals to dancers seeking careers in dance, students looking to expand their dance skills, and those wanting an aerobic workout. This course may be taken once and repeated three times for credit.
