- A) Approval of Consent Agenda: No Items

- B) Second Readings:

- Item 2223-127

- New Credit Course

- ASL 299 Directed Study: American Sign Language

- Description

- Independent Study/Directed Study is intended for students who have the ability to assume responsibility for independent work and to prepare written or oral reports and/or appropriate projects. To enroll in an Independent Study/Directed Study course, students must possess a 2.5 overall grade point average or a 3.0 grade point average in the discipline of study being requested, or receive an exception from the instructor. Independent Studies/Directed Studies may be developed from any topic arising from or related to a course of study that will result in developing depth and breadth in that subject area. Students are expected to meet on a regular basis with their faculty sponsor and submit a final report or project, and student progress is evaluated at regular intervals. Academic standards for Independent Studies/Directed Studies are the same as those for other courses. Units are awarded in accordance to Title 5 regulations, with one unit of credit awarded for 54 hours of Directed Studies, 6 hours of which must be with an instructor. The instructor is responsible for monitoring student progress throughout the semester. Students may take directed study courses for a maximum of 3 units within a discipline, and may not accumulate more than a total of 9 units college wide.

Item 2223-152

New Credit Course

HUSR 135 Law and Ethics in Human Services

Description

This course will cover topics that include the applicable laws and ethics relating to case manager/client professional relationships in inpatient and outpatient treatment settings. Laws relating to confidentiality, patient rights, assessments, sharing of personal information, mandatory reporting, and crisis intervention requirements will be presented. Dealing with issues such as duty to warn, evaluating a person's potential for suicide, child and elder abuse, and when individuals pose a serious potential of harm to others will also be addressed. This is a core course for Drug Studies majors who are pursuing a certificate or degree.

Item 2223-153

New Credit Course

HUSR 136 Diverse Populations

Description

This course examines the cultural and social influence of age, ethnicity, gender, legal status, physical and psychological disability, race, religion, sexual identity, and socioeconomic status on the use of alcohol and other drugs and access to treatment for associated problems. The attitudes, knowledge, and skills necessary to provide a competent assessment of and treatment for those who are often disadvantaged or removed from conventional society will be explored. This course is designed to further understanding of these diverse populations in relation to addiction, co-occurring disorders, recovery, and rehabilitation. This is a core course for Drug Studies majors who are pursuing a certificate or a degree.
