New Credit Course

ASL 299 Directed Study: American Sign Language

Description

Independent Study/Directed Study is intended for students who have the ability to assume responsibility for independent work and to prepare written or oral reports and/or appropriate projects. To enroll in an Independent Study/Directed Study course, students must possess a 2.5 overall grade point average or a 3.0 grade point average in the discipline of study being requested, or receive an exception from the instructor. Independent Studies/Directed Studies may be developed from any topic arising from or related to a course of study that will result in developing depth and breadth in that subject area. Students are expected to meet on a regular basis with their faculty sponsor and submit a final report or project, and student progress is evaluated at regular intervals. Academic standards for Independent Studies/Directed Studies are the same as those for other courses. Units are awarded in accordance to Title 5 regulations, with one unit of credit awarded for 54 hours of Directed Studies, 6 hours of which must be with an instructor. The instructor is responsible for monitoring student progress throughout the semester. Students may take directed study courses for a maximum of 3 units within a discipline, and may not accumulate more than a total of 9 units college wide.

New Associate in Arts for Transfer

Communication Studies 2.0

Description

The Associate in Arts in Communication Studies 2.0 for Transfer (AA-T) Degree is intended to meet the lower division requirements for Communication Studies majors (or similar majors) at a CSU campus that offers a Communication Studies baccalaureate degree.

This degree is designed for students interested in the study and practice of human communication. The Associate in Arts in Communication Studies for Transfer Degree offers students comprehensive knowledge of the nature of communication, including theoretical foundations and applicable skills. Students will develop skills in advocacy, critical thinking, debate, interpersonal communication, oral communication, performance, public speaking, and small group communication. Career opportunities may include: administration, advertising, broadcasting, business communications, consulting, government services, journalism, law, marketing, performance, politics, public relations, sales, teaching, and other professions in which an understanding of and facility with the process of communication is essential.

HUSR 136 Diverse Populations in Human Services

Description

This course examines the cultural and social influence of age, ethnicity, gender, legal status, physical and psychological disability, race, religion, sexual identity, and socioeconomic status on the use of alcohol and other drugs and access to treatment for associated problems. The attitudes, knowledge, and skills necessary to provide a competent assessment of and treatment for those who are often disadvantaged or removed from conventional society will be explored. This course is designed to further understanding of these diverse populations in relation to addiction, co-occurring disorders, recovery, and rehabilitation. This is a core course for Drug Studies majors who are pursuing a certificate or a degree.

It was motioned by Ryan Carey; seconded by Alex Gardos to table HUSR 136 until the course Originator is present to speak to the new course proposal.

V. DISCUSSION ITEMS

1. Elizabeth Ramirez - Volunteers needed for Fall 2022 Program Review Committee meetings (via Zoom)

Elizabeth Ramirez announced that the volunteer positions have been filled for the Fall 2022 Program Review Committee. Line up is as follows:

Monday, December 5th – Ryan Carey

Tuesday, December 6th – Elizabeth Ramirez

Wednesday, December 7th – Joaquin Duran

Thursday, December 8th – Ralph Velasquez

2. Elizabeth Ramirez - AB705/1705 Taskforce update

Elizabeth updated the committee on the AB 705/1705 taskforce. She informed the committee that the first meeting was held on September 30th and that the committee will meet again this Friday, October 21st. The committee is continuing to work on replacement language for the pre-transfer level courses that will no longer be offered on campus.

Elizabeth also reminded committee members of the upcoming curriculum deadlines for inclusion in the 23-24 College catalog. She asked that members remind their faculty of these deadlines.

VI. ADJOURNMENT

Elizabeth Ramirez announced that there will not be a meeting on October 26, 2022.
Elizabeth adjourned the meeting at 11:59 a.m.
