In accordance with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, the District will not knowingly hire or recruit a person for employment if it knows an applicant is not authorized to be employed in the United States.

II. Reliable documentation of eligibility is required for employment from all persons hired. "Reliable documentation" as set out in federal law includes one or more of the following. The Office of Human Resources will examine documents to determine their authenticity and correlations to the person who presents them. The Office of Human Resources will not accept documents which appear to be forged, fraudulent, or subject to tampering.

A. A United States passport or a permanent resident alien card or alien registration card containing a photograph of the prospective employee, that indicates the person is authorized to work in the United States; or

B. A social security card or other documentation issued by the United States government showing authorization to work in the United States AND a valid driver's license or similar identification document containing a photograph of the prospective employee.

III. The District will complete for each new employee the verification form or forms required by the United States Government. The District will retain such forms for at least three years for persons it does not hire. For persons that are hired, the District will retain such forms for at least three years or until one year after the person leaves the District's employment, which ever is later. Each new employee, as a condition of employment, must complete the Employment Eligibility Verification Form I9. The employee must affirm that he or she has the right to work in United States. Current employees whose employment authorizations have an expiration date must present documents to re-verify employment authorization prior to the expiration date.

IV. A former employee who is rehired must also complete the form if he or she has not completed and I9 Form with the District within the past three years, if the employee's previous I9 is no longer valid, or is no longer on file with the Office of Human Resources.

V. The District will protect the privacy of the information it collects pursuant to this procedure.

I. Any General Secondary Credential and all Faculty Service Areas for which an academic employee is qualified for shall be registered with the Office of Human Resources upon hire, or upon qualifying for it. After initial employment, a faculty member may apply to the district to add faculty service areas for which the faculty member qualifies. This should be done prior to February 15 of any academic year in order to be considered in any proceeding during the academic year in which the application is received.

II. Only those registered and on file will be considered as a basis for reassignment in the event of staff reductions pursuant to Education Code Section 87743.

III. Education Code Section 87359 and Title 5, Section 53430 provide for the development of the process, criteria and standards for determining "equivalency" jointly by representatives of the Governing Board and the Academic Senate and approval by the Governing Board.

IV. Responsibility for developing the process, criteria and standards for determining equivalency is assigned to the Academic Senate; the process, criteria and standards shall be approved by the Governing Board prior to implementation.

V. The process shall include procedures to ensure that the Governing Board relies upon the advice and judgment of the Academic Senate to determine that each individual employed under the authority granted by the regulations possesses qualifications that are at least equivalent to the applicable minimum standards specified in Title 5, Section 53420.

RIO HONDO COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Board: 11/08; 2/18/09

I. Rio Hondo Community College District is committed to equal opportunity in educational programs, employment, and all access to institutional programs and activities.

II. The District, and each individual who represents the District, shall provide access to its services, classes, and programs without regard to national origin, religion, age, sex or gender, race, color, medical condition, ancestry, sexual orientation, marital status, physical or mental disability, or because he or she is perceived to have one or more of the foregoing characteristics, or based on association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics.

III. The Superintendent / President shall establish administrative procedures that ensure all members of the college community can present complaints regarding alleged violations of this policy and have their complaints heard in accordance with the Title 5 regulations and those of other agencies that administer state and federal laws regarding nondiscrimination.

IV. I. All forms of harassment are contrary to basic standards of conduct between individuals and are prohibited by state and federal law, as well as this policy, and will not be tolerated. The District is committed to providing an academic and work environment that respects the dignity of individuals and groups. The District shall be free of sexual harassment and all forms of sexual intimidation and exploitation including acts of sexual violence. It shall also be free of other unlawful harassment, including that which is based on any of the following statuses: race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, genetic information marital status, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression age, or sexual orientation of any person, or because he or she is perceived to have one or more of the foregoing characteristics.

II. The District seeks to foster an environment in which all employees and students feel free to report incidents of harassment without fear of retaliation or reprisal. Therefore, the District also strictly prohibits retaliation against any individual for filing a complaint of harassment or for participating in a harassment investigation. Such conduct is illegal and constitutes a violation of this policy. All allegations of retaliation will be swiftly and thoroughly investigated. If the District determines that retaliation has occurred, it will take all reasonable steps within its power to stop such conduct. Individuals who engage in retaliatory conduct are subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination or expulsion.

III. Any student or employee who believes that he or she has been harassed or retaliated against in violation of this policy should immediately report such incidents by following the procedures described in AP 3435. Supervisors are mandated to report all incidents of harassment and retaliation that come to their attention.

IV. This policy applies to all aspects of the academic environment, including but not limited to classroom conditions, grades, academic standing, employment opportunities, scholarships, recommendations, disciplinary actions, and participation in any community college activity. In addition, this policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including but not limited to hiring, placement, promotion, disciplinary action, layoff, recall, transfer, leave of absence, training opportunities and compensation.

V. To this end the President / Superintendent shall ensure that the institution undertakes education and training activities to counter discrimination and to prevent, minimize and/or eliminate any hostile environment that impairs access to equal education opportunity or impacts the terms and conditions of employment.

VI. The President / Superintendent shall establish procedures for employees, students, and other members of the campus community that provide for the investigation and resolution of complaints regarding harassment and discrimination, and procedures for students to resolve complaints of harassment and discrimination. All participants are protected from retaliatory acts by the District, its employees, students, and agents.

VII. This policy and related written procedures including the procedure for making complaints shall be widely published and publicized to administrators, faculty, staff, and students, particularly when they are new to the institution.
