KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

Vice President of Human Capital

Kansas State University, the nation's first land grant university, seeks an experienced and innovative leader to serve as its first chief human capital officer. The Vice President of Human Capital will provide leadership, direction, guidance, and management of Kansas State University's strategic initiatives for human capital and human resource planning, policy, and program development. The first chief human capital officer will lead in the development of its increasing human capital strategy to support meeting K-State's 2017 human capital goals for faculty, staff, and students.

This Vice President will be accountable for the performance of the function with significant responsibility to formulate and implement strategic, tactical, and systems that affect human capital policies and processes of the University's goal of becoming a Top 50 research institution.

The search committee desires letters of nomination, applications (letter of interest, CV/resume, and contact information of at least five references), or expressions of interest to be submitted to the search firm assisting the University. Review of materials will begin immediately and continue until the appointment is made. It is preferred, however, that all nominations and applications be submitted prior to March 21, 2014. Applications received after this date may be considered at the discretion of the Committee and its hiring authority. For a complete position description, please visit the Current Opportunities page at www.k-state.edu/academicjobs. Review of a pre-employment criminal background check will be required of the final candidate.

Charles H. Dyson School of Applied Economics and Management
Lecturer in Accounting
 Cornell University Ithaca, NY

Cornell is a community of scholars, known for intellectual rigor and engaged in deep and broad research, teaching, and service. We seek individuals who are committed to the university's mission and who are committed to the public good. The Charles H. Dyson School of Applied Economics and Management at Cornell University seeks an outstanding lecturer for a 9-month appointment with possibility of extension. Contact is contingent upon preliminary review, the ongoing need for the position, and the availability of funding.

The Dyson School's BA degree in Applied Economics and Management (AEM) is Cornell's premier undergraduate general business degree, and it is currently ranked in the top 10 in both the U.S. News and World Report and Business Week rankings. With 300-350 majors, Dyson is one of the largest of the elite liberal arts undergraduate business programs in the U.S. and one of the most highly respected. Of the School's 400 upper-level students, 20% specialize in accounting.

Position Overview: The person in this position will teach up to five courses per year, likely including one large introductory lecture class, with enrollment of 200, and up to three upper-level classes with enrollment of 40-60. It is anticipated that teaching assignments may change to meet the needs of the curriculum. The successful candidate will also advise Dyson undergraduates. This is an academic-year appointment.

Qualifications: Master's degree in accounting, or MBA, plus relevant and active status as a Certified Public Accountant. Applicants should have 7-9 years of teaching experience and substantial practical experience in the accounting profession.

To Apply: Please submit the following documents electronically in one pdf file to accounting@cornell.edu: your letter of application, CV, three letters of reference, graduate school transcripts, evidence of teaching experience (e.g., course evaluations, if available) and other relevant experience to the attention of Professor Ed McLaughlin, Director, Undergraduate Program, Dyson School of Applied Economics and Management, 201C Warren Hall, Cornell University, Ithaca, NY 14853.

The deadline for applications will be March 1, 2014 and the search will continue until a suitable applicant has been identified. The appointment would commence for the fall 2014 semester. It is assumed the successful applicant will reside in Ithaca, NY.

Cornell University, located in Ithaca, New York, is an inclusive, dynamic, and innovative Ivy League university and New York's first-year institution. Its staff, faculty, and students engage in a continuous quest of larger purpose and contribute creative ideas and best practices to further the university's mission of teaching, research, and service.

Diversity and inclusion have been and continue to be a part of our heritage.
 Cornell University is an equal-TEEA&A employer and educator.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
UT HEALTH SCIENCE CENTER
 SAN ANTONIO

The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio
 School of Medicine

CHAIR, DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY

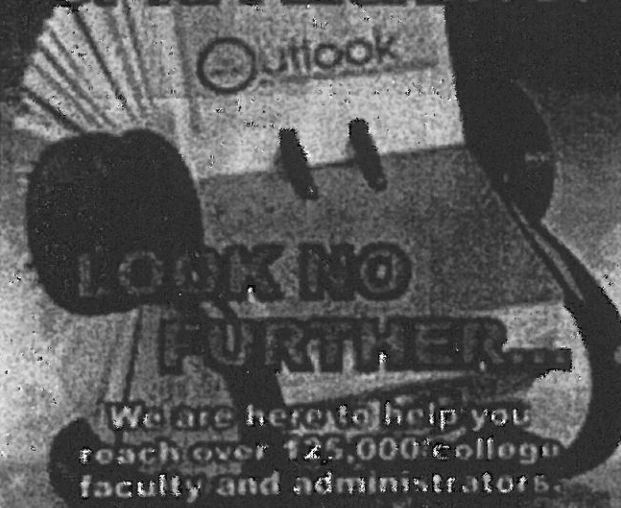

The School of Medicine of the University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio seeks an individual with an outstanding record of scientific achievement, grant support, scholarly accomplishments and mentoring to its new Chair of the Department of Psychiatry with 20 faculty, 16 residents, 1 fellows and 5 PhD students. Dynamic leadership, collaborative and interpersonal skills, and strong vision are required. Reporting to Professor-Deputy-Dean, MD, Dean of the School of Medicine and Vice President for Medical Affairs, the Chair will be responsible for continuing to build and enhance current research programs, high quality graduate, medical and dental resident education, and a collegial interactive culture. The UT Health Science Center is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and is committed to excellence through diversity among its faculty, staff and students.

Candidates must be eligible for professorship with tenure. The ideal candidate will have a widely recognized national reputation in their field. The ability to foster a culture of self-education, innovation, and accountability across the Health Science Center is important. This is a wonderful opportunity for a visionary leader. UTDOCS is a forward moving institution located in the Northwest region of San Antonio and sits on a gateway to the picturesque Texas Hill Country. San Antonio is a vibrant, dynamic, and multicultural city with much to offer, including an attractive cost-of-living.

Interested individuals should submit a letter of interest along with contact information for references and a current CV electronically addressed to David Ellis, M.D., Chair of Medicine and Chair of the Psychiatry Search Committee on Health Science, Attention to the Dean, at dellis@uthscsa.edu.

All faculty appointments are designed to be equity sensitive positions.
