- A) Each member shall be elected for a period of two years. If a division has more than one representative, then one member will have a term that begins and ends in an even numbered year and one member will have a term that begins and ends in an odd numbered year. Determination of which member serves what term will be decided by division election.
- B) Each member may be re-elected to an indefinite number of terms.
- C) The term of each member shall begin at the start of the spring semester.
- D) Two administrators, the Dean of Instructional Operations and the Dean of Career and Technical Education, shall be permanent members of the Committee. In the event that a single administrator is overseeing Instructional Operations and Career and Technical Education, the Dean of Library and Instructional Support shall serve as the second administrative member of the committee
- E) The Admissions & Records Specialist-Analyst (formerly "Evaluation Technician") shall be a permanent ex-officio (non-voting) member of the committee.
- F) The chairperson shall be a faculty member elected to a two-year term. Elections shall take place during the April meeting of the spring semester and the term will run concurrent with the following academic year.
- G) The committee may elect a Co-Chair to serve in the year prior to the transition to a new Committee Chairperson. The Co-Chairs (the incumbent Chair and the incoming Chair) will share duties and the release time available to the Committee Chair. The parties involved shall determine this split.
- H) The Curriculum Committee Chair shall serve as an Ad Hoc member of the Faculty Senate Executive Committee.
- I) The Dean of Instructional Operations shall serve as the Executive Secretary of the Committee. The staff support for the Curriculum Committee (Curriculum Specialist) will be under the supervision of the Dean of Instructional Operations.
- J) There shall be one voting student representative appointed in accordance with ASB procedures and regulations to serve for a one-year term.
- K) Should one of the elected or permanent members be unable to fulfill their duties, an appropriate replacement will be elected or appointed.

PROCEDURES

1. The meeting shall be called to order and action items addressed when a quorum exists. A quorum is 50% of the membership, plus one.
2. Action shall be taken on an agenda item only if an elected curriculum representative from the division in which the curriculum resides is present.
3. When new curriculum is to be considered, the author or an appropriate representative shall be in attendance to present the item and address questions. In the event that no representative is present, the committee may opt to not consider the item.
4. Effective Fall 2019, all courses deemed equivalent (i.e., Honors and non-Honors versions of a course and “cross-listed” courses) must be revised at the same time.
5. The Curriculum Committee may, by majority vote, accept, reject, or request modifications to curriculum proposals to ensure that the curriculum is academically sound and meets all Title 5 regulations.
6. Substitutions of elected curriculum members are limited to members on extended leave or sabbatical leave: replacement members shall serve until the elected member returns or until the term of the elected member expires.
7. Action items require two readings unless waived by the majority of curriculum members.
8. When a course or program is returned to Rio Hondo College from the Chancellor’s Office and is not approved or additional information is requested, the Curriculum Committee Chairperson and the Dean of Instructional Operations shall meet to determine further action. The Committee Chairperson shall have blanket approval to make minor changes as requested and those changes will be shared with the committee as information items.
9. If the problems are other than logistical, the course will be returned to the Curriculum Committee for further action.
10. Any amendment to the bylaws can be made with a motion that passes by 2/3 vote of the membership and has two readings.

RHC Curriculum Committee – Duties of Members

1. Inform Division of deadlines and procedures, as needed. Report on Curriculum Committee activities and decisions at Division meetings.
2. Assist Division members in preparing submissions and using CurrlQunet.
3. Review the Curriculum Committee agenda and minutes prior to meetings.
4. Facilitate collegial interaction between interested parties regarding curriculum items, as needed. Make efforts to find resolution to controversial items prior to meetings.
5. Attend all scheduled meetings and represent the Division's positions and interests.
6. Provide constructive feedback to those submitting items to the Curriculum Committee in a respectful and courteous manner.

RHC Curriculum Committee – Duties of the Chair or Co-Chairs

1. Conduct all meetings in a professional, organized, and timely manner. Meetings, although scheduled weekly, should be held only as needed.
2. Meet with faculty as needed regarding any questions about curriculum processes and procedures as needed (both before and after submission of items).
3. Meet with departments and deans (when necessary) to clarify curriculum issues.
4. Attend state meetings to learn curriculum issues and trends.
5. Work with newer Curriculum members to acclimate them to their role on the Committee and to answer any questions that they may have.
6. Educate the campus on matters relevant to curriculum, such as Title 5 regulations and other state mandates.
7. Provide training sessions as needed to assist faculty in writing and revising courses and/or programs.
8. Review materials submitted to curriculum and notify originators of all changes needed.
