Catalog Course Description:

This course is designed to provide Administration of Justice or other interested students with an in-depth understanding of the history and development of Police Field Operations. Particular emphasis is placed on the planning of field activities. Topics include the functions of patrol, traffic and other preliminary investigative duties of the field officer. The techniques of planning for patrol operations, handling of requests for service, vehicular traffic-related problems, and civil and domestic disturbances are also presented in the course.

Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Student will be able to compare and contrast the various duties of the uniformed law enforcement officer with respect to such concepts as "team policing-community policing tactics".
2. Compare and contrast the different methods of police patrol.
3. Apply the proper method to a model community based upon geography, traffic patterns, crime rate and demographics.
4. Discuss the duties of a patrol officer.
