This course is an introduction to the essentials of Spanish language: reading, listening, speaking, and writing skills. Various facets of Spanish speaking cultures will be analyzed via cross-cultural comparisons. In addition to classroom discussion, students are required to complete at least 27 hours of intensive individualized oral-aural practice in the Language Laboratory via interactive websites, audio CDs, video programs and films. The Language Laboratory work focuses on vocabulary, grammar, and cultural practices. This class is designed for those students who do have a Spanish language background and want to develop a better written and oral competency in the language, or who seek a degree in the Spanish language.
4.5 Units
72 Lecture hours

Student Learning Outcomes:
Given oral questions, written prompts and/or reading selections, students will demonstrate productive and receptive skills in the target language. Students will demonstrate accuracy and proficiency in the use of learned structures and vocabulary. Students will demonstrate knowledge of cultural practices and products in the target language.
