Catalog Course Description:

Advisory: ENGL 035 or ENLA 100 or appropriate assessment; READ 023 or appropriate assessment Transfers to: UC, CSU.

This course introduces students to the characteristics of the criminal justice system in the United States. Focus is placed on examining crime measurement, theoretical explanations of crime, responses to crime, components of the system, and current challenges to the system. The course examines the evolution of the principles and approaches used by the justice system and the evolving forces which have shaped those principals and approaches. Although justice structure and process are examined in a cross-cultural context, emphasis is placed on the US justice system, particularly the structure and function of US police, courts and corrections. Students are introduced to the origins and development of criminal law, legal process, sentencing, and incarceration policies. 3 Units, 54 Lecture hours.

Student Learning Outcomes:

SLO 1: Given a scenario the students will correctly identify how the principles of law enforcement, the courts, or corrections apply.

SLO 2: Presented with a narrative the students will correctly document the information with proper punctuation and grammar.

SLO 3: Presented with a real-life problem the students will effectively analyze the ethical issues involved.

SLO 4: Adapt to the diverse and multicultural nature of American society in the criminal justice system.
