Catalog Course Description:

This advanced composition course is open to all students who have successfully completed ENGL 101 and is designed for those who expect to transfer to four-year colleges or universities. Students will read and write extensively, while applying critical thinking skills and research techniques. Students will demonstrate these abilities in advanced composition as they research and write a series of argumentative essays, which demonstrate the ability to analyze issues, evaluate positions, and argue persuasively through clear, concise prose. The lab component of this course is designed to assist students in advancing and refining their writing and language skills and will augment their ability to exercise critical thought. Students will complete lab activities that further enhance their ability to compose logical, well-supported arguments that exhibit grammatical fluency and correct documentation form.

Pre-requisite: ENGL 101 with a grade of "C" or better

Transfers to: CSU, UC. 3.5 Units

Student Learning Outcomes:

As students in this English 201 course, you should expect to achieve the following student learning outcomes by the end of the semester, which should be demonstrated in a final research-based essay:

- 1) Student papers will contain few or no errors in mechanics and grammar.
- 2) Students will correctly document outside sources using the designated citation format.
- 3) Students will integrate credible outside sources into their papers.
- 4) Students will organize ideas logically.
- 5) Students will write a clear, declarative thesis statement.
- 6) Students will write persuasively.

By logging into Canvas you affirm that you are the student who enrolled in the course(s) and are the person who will complete the assigned work. Furthermore, you agree to follow the regulations regarding academic integrity, personal identification and the use of student information as described in BP 5500 (Standards of Conduct) and AP 5520 (Student Conduct Procedures) which are the Rio Hondo College student conduct codes that govern student rights and responsibilities. You acknowledge that failure to abide by the regulations set forth in BP 5500 and AP 5520 may result in disciplinary action, including expulsion from the college.
