Catalog Course Description:

This lecture/lab course provides the non-art majors an opportunity to learn about art through a series of hands-on projects within an art historical and conceptual framework. Project and topics include: drawing, painting, printmaking, design, mixed media and sculpture.

Student Learning Outcomes:

- Students will create images or objects that demonstrate a working knowledge of value.
- Students will create a project that demonstrates a basic understanding of color relationships.
- Students will create images that demonstrate a working knowledge of visual balance.

By logging into Canvas you affirm that you are the student who enrolled in the course(s) and are the person who will complete the assigned work. Furthermore, you agree to follow the regulations regarding academic integrity, personal identification and the use of student information as described in BP 5500 (Standards of Conduct) and AP 5520 (Student Conduct Procedures) which are the Rio Hondo College student conduct codes that govern student rights and responsibilities. You acknowledge that failure to abide by the regulations set forth in BP 5500 and AP 5520 may result in disciplinary action, including expulsion from the college.

This is NOT a self-paced course. There are firm deadlines in this class. There are assignments due on a regular basis. Please plan your time carefully!

Textbook: Please consult the Bookstore for information at (562) 463-7345 or go to Rio Hondo College Online Bookstore

Over the course of the semester there will be regular instructor student contact.

Methods of student contact include:

You may expect regular contact from me via:

- Announcements
- Zoom office hours
- Notes in graded assignments
- Canvas Inbox

How I will be communicating with you:

- I will be commenting on discussion board posts and responses.
- I will be posting announcements, reminders, news, and tips for preparing for the next week.
- I will be offering feedback and constructive criticism in turned in projects.
- I will be reaching out to students via email needing additional assistance if I see a cause for concern with performance in projects and weekly assignments.

How you can communicate with me:

- My office hours via Zoom must be scheduled and requested via Canvas Inbox. Message me with the days and times you are available.

- You may contact me any time via Canvas Inbox and I shall respond within 48 hours; however, weekends and holidays may be delayed up to 72hours
- Message me with any personal concerns or questions
- You may open up a line of communication once you receive your individual feedback on projects to discuss any questions or concerns about your project/assignment grade.

The instructor may drop you for non-participation.

There will be a one to three business day delay after an add code is used before a student may be able to log on to Canvas.

For students new to online classes, it is highly recommended that you take the Online Orientation through our Online Education website. This will help explain what online classes are like and familiarize you with how the class is laid out. The orientation can be found at: <http://www.riohondo.edu/canvas-orientation/>

Email Responses: Instructors will make every attempt to respond to students in a timely fashion. Responses can take up to 48 hours before a response is received, excluding weekends and holidays.

Disability: A Student with a verified disability may be entitled to appropriate academic accommodations. Please contact your instructor and/or the Disabled Students & Programs office at 562-908-3420 for more information.

Modifications and Disclaimer: The instructor reserves the right to modify the content of the course or any course procedure. It is the responsibility of the student to keep apprised of all changes. If the student wishes to drop the class he/she is responsible for initiating the drop. Do not take it for granted that you will be dropped. If you stop working and do not drop the course, you may get an undesirable grade.

Additional Information:

If you are a NCAA athlete, special needs student, or veteran, please let me know during the first week of class via Canvas Inbox so that I may make note of certain accommodations that you will be requiring during the semester. Failure to do so may negatively impact your final grade.
