ANSWERS TO FAQs

FOR STUDENT USE IN THE LIBRARY

Reserve textbooks can be borrowed for in-library use only for 2 hours. These books can be scanned or photocopied.

Printing and photocopying is available in black and white for 10 cents a page. Color prints are 50 cents a page.

Study rooms can be reserved up to a week in advance. Study rooms are for 2 to 6 students. Rooms can be reserved for up to 2 hours.

Periodicals, dvds, reference, and reserve textbooks are for in-library use only.

ONLINE RESOURCES

All online resources can be accessed 24/7 from anywhere.

From off-campus, research databases and eBooks can be accessed through AccessRio.

LIBRARIAN SERVICES

Librarians are available in person at the Reference Desk and online.

One-on-one consultations are perfect when struggling to find sources for research papers, to format essays using a particular citation style, or to utilize citations correctly.

Instruction sessions are scheduled by professors for an entire class to receive librarian help on specific information literacy topics.

Workshops are taught by librarians and are offered at the end of each semester. Students receive digital badges for completion.

HOME BORROWING

A valid ID and an RHC student ID number are all that is needed to borrow materials.

Students can borrow up to 10 items (includes books and digital devices).

Books that can be taken home are called circulating books which are typically non-fiction. Also available to take home include popular reading books, graphic novels, children's books, and other kinds of fiction.
