FOR STUDENT USE IN THE LIBRARY

Reserve textbooks can be borrowed for in-library use only for 2 hours. These books can be scanned or photocopied.

Printing and photocopying is available in black and white for 10 cents a page. Color prints are 50 cents a page.

Study rooms can be reserved up to a week in advance. Rooms can be reserved for up to 2 hours.

Periodicals, DVDs, reference, and reserve textbooks are for in-library use only.

ONLINE RESOURCES

All online resources can be accessed 24/7 from anywhere.

From off campus, research databases and electronic books (eBooks) can be accessed through AccessRio.

LIBRARIAN SERVICES

Librarians are available in person at the Reference Desk and online.

One-on-one consultations are perfect if you are struggling to find sources for research papers, format essays using a particular citation style, or utilize citations correctly.

Instruction sessions are scheduled by professors for an entire class to receive librarian help on specific library- and research-related topics.

In-person workshops are taught by librarians and are offered at the end of each semester. Asynchronous workshops are offered online 24/7. Students receive digital badges for completion.

BORROWING FOR HOME

Students can borrow up to 10 items; items include books as well as technology equipment.

Books that can be taken home are called "circulating books" and are typically non-fiction. However, the Library also has popular reading books, graphic novels, children's books, and other kinds of fiction. Come check them out!
