Catalog Course Description:

This course is designed to provide Administration of Justice or other interested students with an in-depth study of the legal responsibilities of law enforcement. An emphasis will be placed on the judicial segment of the administration of justice system. Topics include laws of arrest, custody, past, present, and future analysis of the procedures for each subsystem within the administration of justice system from initial entry to final disposition. The relationship each segment maintains with system members will also be covered

Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Apply constitutional, statutory, procedural, and case law to real-life criminal justice situations.
2. Contrast the court procedures that occur from arrest through appeal.
3. Identify the constitutional rights afforded to people in the United States.

By logging into Canvas you affirm that you are the student who enrolled in the course(s) and are the person who will complete the assigned work. Furthermore, you agree to follow the regulations regarding academic integrity, personal identification and the use of student information as described in BP 5500 \(Standards of Conduct\) and AP 5520 \(Student Conduct Procedures\) which are the Rio Hondo College student conduct codes that govern student rights and responsibilities. You acknowledge that failure to abide by the regulations set forth in BP 5500 and AP 5520 may result in disciplinary action, including expulsion from the college.
