Catalog Course Description:

This is a composition course which enables students to compose logical, coherent essays and papers necessary to college success. Students will master research techniques, learn critical reading and thinking skills through expository and persuasive reading selections, and apply these skills in creating original essays, leading to a research paper. Students are required to complete 27 lab hours.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Given a topic, or by choosing a topic, the student will write an essay supporting a thesis by incorporating evidence from various sources and documenting said sources using MLA format. The student should be able to clearly demonstrate a thesis, use good analysis of outside sources, incorporate source material smoothly and accurately, and use MLA format correctly.

By logging into this course you affirm that you are the student who enrolled in the course(s) and are the person who will complete the assigned work. Furthermore, you agree to follow the regulations regarding academic integrity, personal identification and the use of student information as described in

BP 5500 \(Standards of Conduct\) and AP 5520 \(Student Conduct Procedures\) which are the Rio Hondo

College student conduct codes that govern student rights and responsibilities. You acknowledge that failure to abide by the regulations set forth in BP 5500 and AP 5520 may result in disciplinary action, including expulsion from the college.

This is NOT a self-paced course. There are firm deadlines in this class. There are assignments due on a regular basis. Please plan your time carefully!
