- I. The Board of Trustees is committed to its ongoing development as a Board and to a trustee education program that includes new trustee and student trustee orientation. To that end, the Board will engage in study sessions, be provided access to reading materials, and attend conferences and other activities that foster trustee education. The Board members will provide post-professional development activity reports at the subsequent Board meeting.
- II. Newly elected or appointed Trustees, including the Student Trustee, shall be provided an orientation as detailed in Administrative Procedures 2740.
