I. Introduction

- A. The Rio Hondo Community College District Board of Trustees provides for the deferment of fees charged to students at the time of enrollment as well as waivers for eligible students.

II. Deferments

- A. Students are given the option to pay by credit card at the time they register or to pay at a later date by cash, check, or credit card, thus deferring the fees.
- B. Students who are attending third party sponsored training programs will sign a deferment agreement between that third party and the College.

III. Waivers

- A. Select fees will be waived in the following circumstances:
  - 1. Enrollment fees and student representation fee will be waived for California College Promise Grant (formerly Board of Governor's Fee Waiver [BOGW]) students.
  - 2. All fees will be waived for K-12 students and adult students in a high school diploma seeking program enrolled in 11 or fewer units per term.
  - 3. Non-resident fees are waived for AB540 students.
  - 4. Health fees and student representation fees are waived for Public Service students who are enrolled in classes that are fewer than 40 hours per term.
  - 5. All fees are waived for Apprenticeship classes.
