I. The Rio Hondo Community College District shall maintain a College Bookstore and Campus Inn at the main campus. Under the direction of the Director of Contract Management and Vendor Services, the College Bookstore and Campus Inn shall be operated by private contractors approved by the Board of Trustees.

II. College Bookstore

College-related books, materials, and supplies shall be sold through the Bookstore in accordance with the College Bookstore contract.

It is not intended for the Bookstore to compete with private business at the College.

III. Campus Inn

Foods and beverages shall be sold through the Campus Inn and in accordance with the Campus Inn contract under the direction of the Director of Contract Management and Vendor Services.

It is not intended for the Campus Inn to compete with private business at the College.

IV. Other Materials

Organizations desiring to sell materials produced by students in class, e.g., paintings, ceramic ware, jewelry, electrical devices, etc., must be granted approval by the Associated Student Senate, as well as the Director, Student Activities. Part of the proceeds from the sale of such materials must go to the designated approved student body organization or scholarship fund. The Student Activities Office will provide procedures for the handling of all funds.

V. Non-College Sales

Student organizations desiring to sell materials, food, or tickets, etc., for non-college activities must be granted approval by the Administration through the designated Director, Student Activities. Since the College has no legal authority to permit the operation of private business on campus, the sale of tickets, merchandise, etc., by outside vendors, through students, generally can not be permitted.
