RIO HONDO COLLEGE BACCALAUREATE AUTOMOTIVE DEGREE PROGRAM

This program will build on the college's existing Associate of Science (A.S.) degree program in Automotive Technology. Our A.S. program – which is well aligned with the automotive industry both regionally and nationally – provides a solid foundation for the development of the new bachelor's program. Successful candidates for employment within organizations requiring a baccalaureate degree in this field need high-level advanced automotive technology skills and knowledge. Graduates need to be technically competent and possess strong interpersonal skills, such as the ability to communicate effectively, solve problems, work in teams and pursue continued professional development. The primary goal of the Bachelor of Science in Automotive Technology is to provide the automotive industry with employees with these skills. Students will receive training in various business, management and technical courses such as managerial accounting, leadership, marketing, advanced vehicle systems design and performance. Other courses will emphasize communication, business and technical writing, and human relations.

A freshman cohort of 20 students in the Automotive Technology program started in Fall 2015. Students have the option to complete a supplemental application as a pre-major (just like at other four-year colleges and universities) starting July 2015. In Fall 2016, Rio Hondo will start offering the junior-level (300 level) courses in the Automotive Technology program, as well as the upper-division general education courses. Admission will be open to students who hold a two-year Automotive Technology degree and meet required prerequisites.
